

MERRIMACK I

Madrid, Spain

The buildings are designed with the flexibility to be occupied each by a single entity, simultaneously by floor, or as a business park for a company headquarters. Office floors are rectangular shaped with open floor plates and adjoined vertical communication cores on one side. Structural supports are located on the perimeter, providing the space with great versatility and natural light in the interior.

ARCHITECT: Fairbanks Arquitectos SLP
CLIENT: Fábrega Empresa Constructora SA
TYPOLGY: Active CW System one glass
SURFACE: 2.359 m²

